

WALTHAM EDUCATION
Waltham High School Mirror

Scope and Content

This is an incomplete collection of Waltham High School yearbooks. First published circa 1906, The Mirror began as a journal for student writers and a newsletter of High School activities. In 1907, the editorial staff included famous Waltham residents, Walter F. Starbuck and Warren E. Glancy. Starbuck served as Alumni editor and Glancy was the Assistant Business Manager. (Published and unpublished material by these two writers can be found elsewhere in the Waltham Room collection.) The Mirror seems to have been published on a monthly basis until around 1947. At this time, the yearbook was issued upon commencement with photographs of the graduating class, sports teams, dances and activities, and articles about the class.

Arrangement

Items are arranged chronologically. Post-1994 donations are noted as such in the finding aid. Yearbooks given to the library as part of a larger donation have been separated from the rest of their original series. This is noted in the donor files and in the finding aid (i.e. Lillian Shirley Collection.) Most of these yearbooks were housed in the original Waltham Room under Archivist Betty Castner.
